Sunday of the Paralytic

The fourth Sunday is dedicated to Christ's healing of the paralytic (Jn 5). The man is healed by Christ while waiting to be put down into the pool of water. Through baptism in the church we, too, are healed and saved by Christ for eternal life. Thus, in the church, we are told, together with the paralytic, to sin no more that nothing worse befall you” (Jn 5:14).

The Feast of Mid-Pentecost

In the middle of this fourth week, the middle day between Easter and Pentecost is solemnly celebrated. It is called the feast of Mid-Pentecost, at which Christ, “in the middle of the feast” teaches men of his saving mission and offers to all “the waters of immortality” (Jn 7:14). Again we are reminded of the Master's presence and his saving promise: “If anyone is thirsty let him come to me and drink” (Jn 7:37). We think also once again of our death and resurrection with Christ in our baptism, and our reception of the Holy Spirit from him in our chrismation. We “look back to one, and anticipate the other” as one of the hymns of the feast puts it. We know that we belong to that kingdom of the Risen Christ where “the Spirit and the Bride say, 'Come!' And let him who is thirsty come, let him who desires take the water of life without price” (Rev 22:17. Is 55:1).

WELCOME VISITORS!

“MY HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER

FOR ALL PEOPLES.” - Isaiah 56: 7

If you are a visitor to Our Lady of Perpetual Help, we want you to know how welcome you are; whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish. We hope you find our worship true and reverent and our people here friendly and cordial. If you are seeking a spiritual home, we would be honored by your presence in our family.

For more information about becoming a parishioner, please see Fr. Ed.

May Her Memory Be Eternal

Theresa Latzanich was called home to the Lord on Sunday, April 8 and funeral services were celebrated by Fr. Ed on Saturday, May 14. In your charity, please pray for the repose of her souls and the consolation of her family.

In blessed repose grant O Lord eternal rest to the souls of your departed servant Theresa and remember her forever.
